CWP No.309/2006.

13.06.2007 Present: Mr. Tarlok Chauhan, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Shrawan Dogra, Advocate for respondents No.1 and 2.

During the course of hearing, a very fair proposal has come from Mr. Tarlok Chauhan that if his client is re-engaged by the Board, he will not claim back wages. Mr. Shrawan Dogra is not averse to the proposal of Mr. Tarlok Chauhan. Accordingly, award dated 1.10.2005 is quashed and set aside with consent of the parties.

Consequently, the Board is directed to re-engage the petitioner within three weeks from today, but without back wages. The petitioner will be held entitled to the seniority for the purpose of continuity, that too, without affecting the rights of other workmen who are already in employment with the Board.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of with the above observations.

(Rajiv Sharma), Judge.
